"THE FINE ARTS"

IS the handsomest and most complete Art Work published today. It consists of Four Volumes, bound in Full Limp Morocco; contains over three hundred monographs and over six hundred reproductions of the World's Masterpieces in Painting, Sculpture, Architecture and Decoration, among which are twelve exquisite photogravures valued at one dollar each.

THIS University Course of Art Instruction is the best work published on this subject today or ever offered to the public. It was edited by Dr. Edmund Buckley of the University of Chicago, assisted by Professor Hoppin, Yale University, Professor Churchill, Columbia University, and a faculty comprising twenty of the most eminent instructors and art critics in America.

The Luxembourg Museum and Its Treasures

THE great demand for reproductions of Luxembourg paintings has found its expression in Charles Louis Borgmeyer's beautiful book entitled: "THE LUXEMBOURG MUSEUM AND ITS TREASURES."

This contains over two hundred priceless engravings supplemented with two hundred and twenty-four pages of text and illustrations printed on the best of plate paper, bound in morocco leather, flexible covers, with gilt edges and embossing—in fact, it is an Art Work De Luxe. Size 8½x11½.

Written Under the Shadow of the War

This is not a work compiled second-handed, but every illustration and every description was procured in Paris by Mr. Borgmeyer during the summer before the outbreak of the war. In fact, through his enthusiasm for his work, the author found himself shut up in Paris in that memorable month of August when the Germans made their onslaught upon the Greatest Capital of Art the world has ever known.

The publishers have reduced the price of "THE LUXEMBOURG MUSEUM AND ITS TREASURES" to readers of this magazine from $8.00 to $5.50
